

Independent property valuations for matters that need to stand up.

For property settlements, divorce and separation, probate, deceased estates and retrospective valuation dates.

Family law

Estate & probate

Retrospective dates

Built around the matters you actually handle

Clear scope. Qualified professionals. Structured reports. Simple online ordering.

Property settlements

Independent valuations for divorce, separation, mediation, consent orders and contested property matters.

Estate & probate

Certified property valuations for deceased estate administration, probate and testamentary matters.

Retrospective values

Establish market value at a nominated historical date using available market evidence and comparable sales.

Property decisions need evidence, not guesswork.

Start at hovr.com.au →

A valuation process designed for legal work

hovr connects legal professionals with qualified valuers and provides a clear digital workflow from instruction to report.

A straightforward workflow

Put a defensible value on the property.

Use hovr when the matter needs more than an appraisal. Order online, track the job and receive the completed valuation report digitally.

hovr.com.au

General information only. Legal requirements vary by matter and jurisdiction. See hovr.com.au for current product details and pricing.